User's Guide

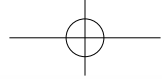

During 5,000 years of social progress, China has formed its unique cultural and artistic styles which have aroused the curiosity of people from different parts of the world. This colouring book is precisely designed for curious young minds by providing rich colouring and drawing activities, through which they can begin their journey of exploring China.

The concise introduction and simple outlines of the figures or objects in the book can help children gain a basic knowledge of China; the patterns in various shapes will facilitate their learning of Chinese culture and art forms in different regions throughout the ages. Young readers can get a taste of China and its culture through colour use and pattern design by doing these activities.

This book can also be used as a supplement to Exploring China—A Children's Guide to Chinese Culture, a teaching resource package published by Sinolingua.

Five-Star Red Flag

五星红旗

It is the national flag of China.
The red colour reminds people of the revolutions during which many heroes sacrificed their lives for peace.

The five stars are painted yellow just like the skin colour of the Chinese people.
